About CUSB

The Central University of South Bihar (CUSB) is established by the Government of India under the Central Universities Act, 2009. The University is located on SH-7, near Panchanpur, just 15Kms away from the land of enlightenment and salvation, the holy city of Gaya. CUSB is NAAC Grade 'A' accredited and is an emerging educational hub in the Eastern part of India. The University runs undergraduate, postgraduate and research programmes in various disciplines. Overall, the University offers conducive environment, adequate infrastructure support and innovative pedagogies to nurture the students.

About the Conference

Objective: The 1st ICHIB was organized in 2016 in CUSB, Patna campus. That event was successful with overwhelming response as we were able to bring together more than 500 participants including industries from all over India and abroad on one platform for fruitful scientific interactions and collaborations. Following the success of 1st ICHIB, we are organizing the 2nd ICHIB-2020 with continued focus on the essential progression of developments and advancements through latest upfront of biotechnological research and practice, essential for human welfare.

About the City

Gaya is a holy city beside the Falgu River, in the Indian state of Bihar. It's known for 18th-century Vishnupad Temple, a riverside temple with an octagonal shrine. Gaya is famous for its annual Pitrapaksha Mela. Another holy city Bodh Gaya is just 15 Kms away from Gaya. The Bodhi tree in the Mahabodhi temple under which Lord Budha was enlightened about 2600 years back became a magnetic location as Bodh Gaya. Also, Gaya is surrounded by historical towns like Nalanda and Rajgir each within 100 Kms distance from Gaya.

Weather in March: Pleasant, cloud free conditions with temperatures ranging between 30°C to 35°C.

How to reach: The CUSB Gaya campus is located on SH-7 Gaya-Panchanpur road, around 15 Kms from Gaya Railway Station and 25 Kms from Gaya Airport.

A trip to Bodhgaya, Nalanda and Rajgir can be organized on payment of additional charges.

(Subject to adequate number of participants)
