About the city

Gaya is a holy city founded by the Buddha River, in the Indo-Burma region of Bihar. It's known for 15th-century Vishnupad Temple, a riverside temple with an octagonal shrine. Gaya is famous for its annual Pitrapaksha Mela. Another holy city both Gaya is just 15 Kms away from Gaya. The Bodhi tree in the Mahabodhi temple under which Lord Buddha was enlightened about 2600 years back became a magnetic location as both Gaya.Also, Gaya is surrounded by historical towns like Nalanda and Rajgir each which Lord Budha was enlightened about 2600 years back.

Weather in March: Pleasant, cloud free conditions with temperatures ranging between 30°C to 35°C.

How to reach: The CUSB Gaya campus is located on SH-7 Gaya-Panchanpur road, around 15 Kms from Gaya Railway Station and 25 Kms from Gaya Airport.
